

Ann W. Turner

April 28, 1953 - January 6, 2019

Ann “Annie” Whitelock Turner, of Rockford, Michigan, passed away peacefully after a long illness on January 6, 2019 at age 65. Ann graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a major in English. Her career included roofing sales upon graduating college to working as a pharmacy technician to being a customer service manager. Ann enjoyed being a maker in her spare time; cooking, sewing, embroidery, knitting, and gardening were just a few of her favorite creative expressions. Known for her infectious laugh, Ann’s sense of humor was always present, even in her final days. Above all, Ann was a loving mother, grandmother, daughter and friend. Family meant everything to her, which was evident in the way her face would light up when she spent time with her daughters and grandchildren. Her vibrant, beautiful spirit can never be replaced. Ann is survived by her mother; Peggy (John) N. Whitelock, daughters; Megan (Erik) E. Wolenberg, Peggy (Devin) E. Greene; grandchildren; Lochlan E. Wolenberg and Rowan E. Wolenberg. She is preceded in death by her father; John R. Whitelock. A memorial service to celebrate her life will be at 3:00 p.m. on January 11, 2019, at Eastminster Presbyterian Church, 1700 Woodward Avenue SE, Grand Rapids, MI 49506. To fulfill Ann’s wishes, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her name to Hearts of Hope Dog Rescue or Mackenzie’s Animal Sanctuary

“ Ann lived across the street from me as we grew up in Mt. Lebanon. I have such special and fond memories of time spent with Ann, especially camping out in her back yard! I was looking forward to seeing her at our next high school reunion. She will be missed by many.
